

Board Director

The role of a UNACTO Board Director has two primary functions: strategize and monitor. Board Directors are elected members that oversee and fulfill regulations set out in the UNACTO By-Laws.

The Board Director holds the following duties:

- Fiduciary Duty—to act honestly and in good faith in the best interests of the organization.
- Duty of Care—to exercise the same care as a reasonable, prudent person in comparable circumstances.
- Duty of Loyalty—to act without conflict of interest.
- Duty of Confidentiality—to maintain absolute confidentiality concerning Board discussions.
- Duty of Solidarity—to speak as a Board with one voice once a vote is taken and a decision is made.

Key Areas of Responsibility

- Establish mission, values, goals, strategic priorities and performance assessment standards.
- General due diligence (fiscal, legal, risk mitigation oversight).
- Oversee selection and evaluation of branch President.
- Maintain oversight over policies and systems (HR, information systems and administrative structures).
- Ensure the organization secures sufficient funds to achieve objectives.
- Ensure the Board is as effective as possible through recruitment, selection, orientation, training and evaluation of board meetings, processes and results.
- Lead and support community relations.
