

UNACTO 2022-2023 Season Strategic Plan Summary

Introduction

The United Nations remains at the center of international cooperation, a significant component in efforts towards building a peaceful, equal and healthy world for all.

The biggest challenges the world currently faces include social and economic inequalities, the climate crisis, and protecting peace and security, all of which have a direct impact at home in Toronto.

It is within our communities that the betterment of our world begins. During the Decade of Action, we must mobilize to embrace a shift in the way we live and deliver on change for people and the planet by 2030 through the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The time to act is now.

Our Mission

UNACTO is dedicated to elevating the principles of the UN Charter and to accomplishing the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) through innovative programming. Our work is guided by three core principles: integrity, inclusiveness and compassion.

We believe in building a better tomorrow by engaging the youth of the Greater Toronto Area and in growing global citizens through knowledge of the UN and its initiatives.

Vision for the Season

As one of the largest and most diverse cities in the world, UNACTO seeks to highlight the work being done in Toronto to support the SDGs. With a focus on social and economic equality, the health of our planet and global security, we aim to connect people of all backgrounds and interests with each other, supporting in sharing knowledge and resources.

United Nations Association in Canada Toronto Region Branch
Association Canadienne pour les Nations Unies Agence Region Toronto

UNACTO will engage with our community to accomplish the SDGs through an accessible and intersectional approach—prioritizing women; Black, Indigenous and People of Colour (BIPOC); and LGBTQIA+ voices. Youth involvement will be a key component to our success, as we look to equip young people with the awareness they need to become action-oriented global citizens.